A new children's fire safety book
by the critically acclaimed,
award-winning author,
Firefighter Dayna Hilton

Inspired by her work as a firefighter and her four-legged friend, Sparkles, author Firefighter Dayna Hilton created a heart-warming story about Sparkles.

The Southborough Fire Department is the location of Author Dayna Hilton's second in a series of children's books, Sparkles Goes to Boston. The book, which chronicles Sparkles' big trip to visit Firefighter Jim at the fire station, includes age appropriate fire safety tips which are based on Oklahoma State University Fire Protection Publication's comprehensive preschool curriculum project for young children. Firefighter Jim, Sparkles, and her two-legged friend, Firefighter Dayna, are the main characters of the book. Chief Mauro and firefighters from the department are also featured in the fun and educationally sound fire safety book.

*A portion of the sales from Sparkles the Fire Safety Dog will be donated to the Keep Kids Fire Safe® Foundation and to the Southborough Fire Department's fire safety program.
